

Many First American artists use abstract shapes and straight lines to represent ideas or materials in the natural world. Create some of your own below.

Artists also use curved lines and shapes to represent things like flowers and plants. Draw designs that you find or invent your own below.

Design Detective

As you visit the galleries, find designs in works of art that delight you.
Draw what you see or create your own designs in the circles below.

Big Idea Gallery

Be on the lookout for new key facts, concepts, or quotes you see in the galleries. Jot down one point in each of the frames below.

Gallery Label

Write a few sentences that summarize what you have learned: